Loa is a boa.
Loa has a goal.
Her goal is to get a coat.

A boa with a coat?
Is this a hoax?
No! Loa will get her coat.

Loa roams down
the road.

Loa meets a goat.
The goat has a nice coat.

“Can I have your coat?”

says Loa.

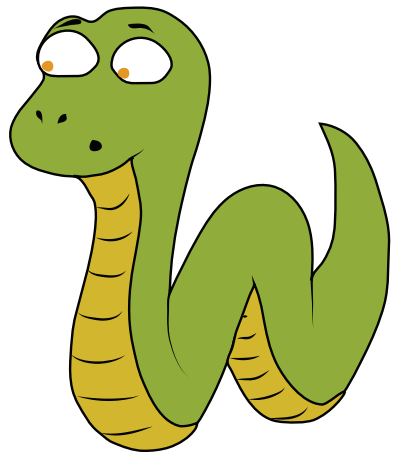

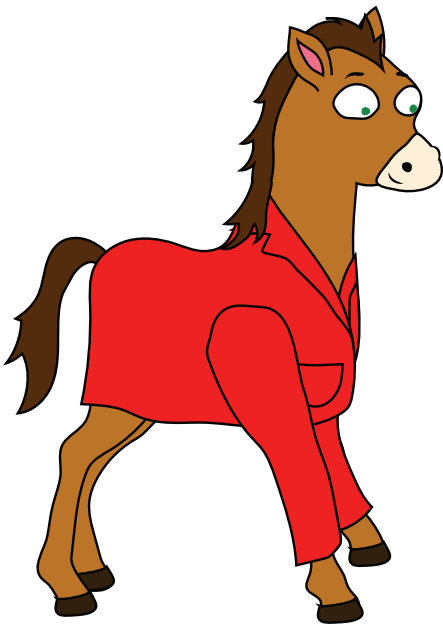

“No!” roars the goat.

“A boa does not need
a coat.”

Loa roams down
the road.

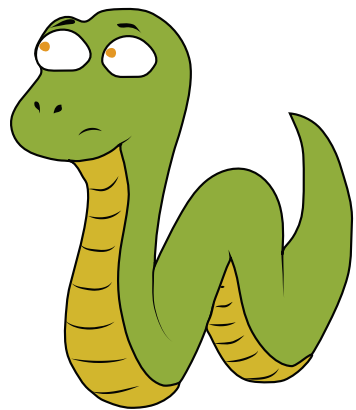

Loa meets a foal.
The foal has a nice coat.

“Can I have your coat?”
says Loa.

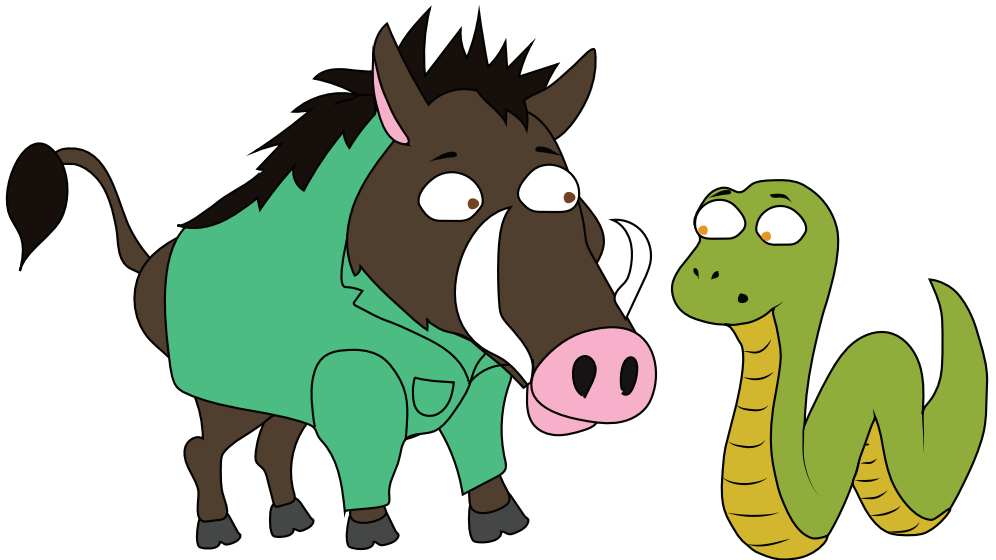

“No!” roars the foal.

“A boa does not need
a coat.”

Loa roams down
the road.

Loa meets a boar.
The boar has a nice coat.

“Can I have your coat?”

says Loa.

“No!” roars the boar.

“A boa does not need
a coat.”

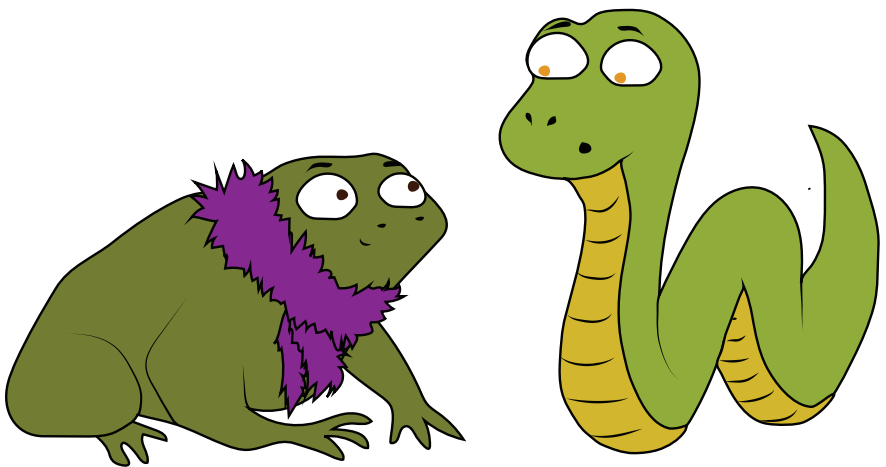

Loa roams down
the road.

Loa meets a toad.

The toad does not have a coat.

But, the toad does have a boa.

“What is that you have?” says Loa.

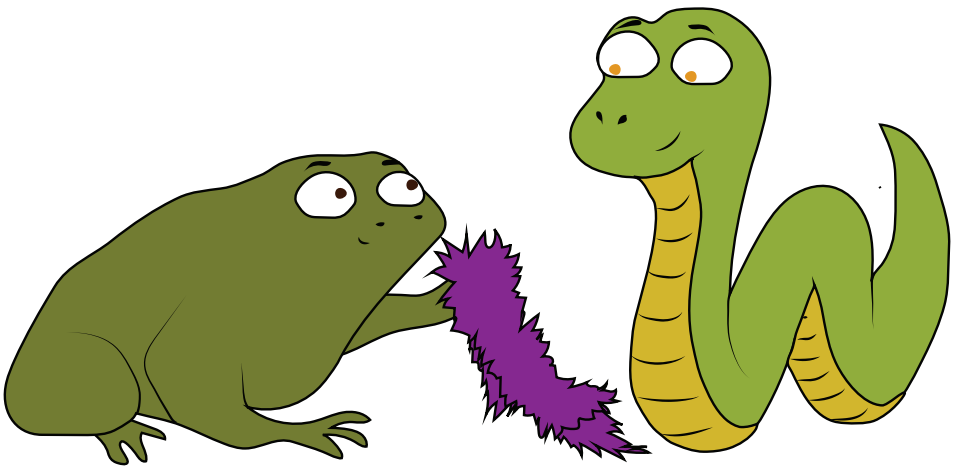

“It is a boa,” says the toad.

“Take my boa then!”

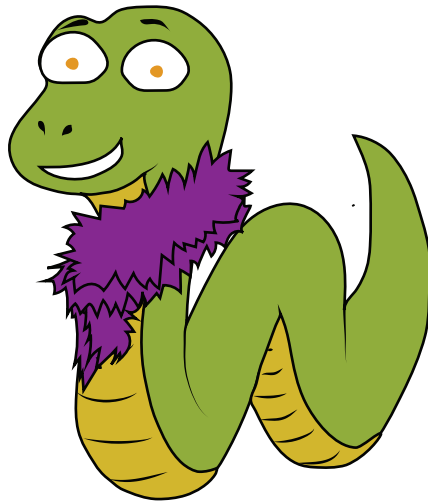

said the toad.

“It will be nice on you!”

Loa does not want a coat.

Loa looks so fine
with the boa!

How To Use This Reader With Your Child

Have your child read aloud from this reader for 5–10 minutes each day. Begin by reading the list of ‘sight words’ printed on the inside cover. Your child’s goal is to read through the entire book 2–3 times before returning to the centre in one week’s time. They should be able to read smoothly and retell the story.

You are responsible for keeping this reader in good condition and returning it in one week.
